

Evaluating Initial Instruction

Directions Follow these directions for evaluating the initial instruction.

1. Report what you observed about anyone playing the role of —
 - observer.
 - learner.
 - instructor.

 2. Contrast the first instruction with the second instruction for any trio, then share with the whole group any differences you observed between —
 - instructing methods.
 - learning “styles” or “modes.”
-